

Wild Fae Party Booking Terms & Conditions

- Bookings require 100% payment
- Cancellation-
Due to performer illness (all fees to be returned)

Due to child illness (We aim to accommodate your new date and will endeavour to move the booking over once. If this cannot be arranged due to our availability, 50% fees shall be charged, and 50% returned. If the party is cancelled within 48 hours of the event, 100% fees shall be charged).

We ask parents/carers to:

- stay with the children/performer at all times- performers should not be left unattended even when they hold a DBS check
- schedule party set up time BEFORE the children arrive
- be respectful of the performer (eg, ensure background noise is kept at a minimum whilst the performer reads/sings/leads workshops)
- ensure children's behaviour is managed accordingly- the performer is entitled to ask for support where needed. Performers are entitled to terminate their performance/workshop if children display inappropriate or unsafe behaviour
Instructions are given to keep children safe.
- ensure there is a first aid kit available
- send an image of the venue when booking so we can check space requirements
- ensure there is a suitable changing space at the venue
- ensure the performers speaker/party kit/ belongings are kept safe
- inform us if any other entertainment is booked for the same event, eg, face painting, bouncy castle
- inform us of any additional needs the children may have
- be mindful of siblings that are not engaging in the party activities- please ensure they are supervised at all times and do not hinder the performer's ability to deliver the party. If they are too young to engage, please ensure they are with an adult
- provide an alternative space if bad weather hinders outdoor party plans
- share any photos you take (if you're happy for us to feature your party on our socials)

Thank you, let's have a great party!

Rebecca, Wild Fae Entertainment

